

W-Brown Enterprises, is looking for an experienced heavy equipment operator (Trackhoe). This experience needs to include excavating around live utilities, able to read prints, travel, work well with others, etc. You can follow the link to their company website and individuals with required experience can fill out the online application and submit their resume. The majority of their work is in the Oklahoma/Texas area.

Their company offers competitive and weekly pay, health insurance, vision/dental, 401K, vacation and per diem for overnight stays.

Wet and Dry Utility contractor - W. Brown Enterprises, Inc.